Our Values

When life becomes difficult due to age, injury, or disability, Friends for Friends can help you maintain a safe lifestyle in your chosen home.

Through in-home care, you can retain your individuality, spirituality, dignity, and personal connections.

It is our mission, our pledge, and our privilege to provide the highest standard of home care in Connecticut, delivered with compassion, at the lowest possible cost to all our friends.

A Lower Cost Option

Our caregivers work as independent contractors.

We thoroughly screen and identify experienced and compassionate caregiver candidates for your consideration.

Flexibility

We are available to serve you 24/7. In an emergency situation, we can even coordinate same-day care.

Family Atmosphere

Our registry is comprised of primarily our friends, family members, and work associates that we have known for years. We call these caregivers our friends; and we know you will too.

Our trusted caregivers can provide assistance with:

- Personal care (e.g. bathing, dressing, grooming)
- Companionship
- Shopping and errands
- Meal preparation
- Transportation
- Housekeeping and laundry
- Medication reminders
- Exercise and activities
